Cambrian section at Harlans Knob. 4 mi
N.E. of Rogersville. Tenn

1. Knox sandstone -
Thin bedded & shaly sandstones with some intrbedded argil-shale & impure limestone.
Fossils ocur near the summit of a middle Cambrian type.

2. Thin belt of dark
argil- & calc - shale

3. Massive - arenaceous
limestone,

4. Drab shale (Rogersville
shale — (Hamilton)

5. Massive limestone

with fossils more or less abundant throughout.

6. Grab shale with fossils.

7. Massive limestone
with fossils.
Base of "Brent
dolomite".

8. Sandy & argil- &
calcareous shale

9. Banded limestones at top of Brent dolomite.